Sen. Brown to be at Hillsdale County Fair

LANSING – State Sen. Cameron S. Brown, R-Fawn River Township, will be available to meet with constituents at the Hillsdale County Fair next week.

In addition to walking in the parade Monday, Sept. 27, at 10 a.m. and attending the Small Animal Livestock Auction from 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 30, Brown also will be at the fair during the following times:

Date	Time
Monday, Sept. 27	Noon to 4 p.m.
Friday, Oct. 1	4 to 8 p.m.
Saturday, Oct. 2	Noon to 4 p.m.

Brown will have several free state publications available at an information booth, including coloring books and bookmarks for children, informational booklets for senior citizens, citizens' guides to state government and Michigan maps.

“The Hillsdale County Fair is a great opportunity to catch up with residents and supply them with materials that might come in handy,” Brown said. “This is an event I look forward to attending every year. I encourage everyone to stop by and say hello.”

Brown, who lives in the farmhouse built by his great-great-grandparents in Fawn River Township, plans to spend as much time as possible with 4-H participants while attending the fair.

As chair of the Senate Appropriations agriculture subcommittee, Brown is responsible for helping develop the $126 million Agriculture budget, which contains state funding for county fairs and grants for programs like 4-H.
